RULES FOR A DAN PROMOTION TEST

- (1) All candidates must be submitted by a club with a current club affiliation certificate.
- (2) Recommendation
 - (a) All candidates up to 4th Dan/Poom must be recommended by a British Taekwondo-recognised 4th Dan or above.
 - (b) For 5th Dan, you can be recommended by any British Taekwondo-recognised 5th Dan or above.
 - (c) For 6th Dan, you can be recommended by any British Taekwondo-recognised 6th Dan or above.
 - (d) For 7th Dan, you must be recommended by the British Taekwondo Chief Instructor.
 - (e) Candidates for any dan or poom grade can be recommended by the British Taekwondo Chief Instructor.
- (3) Please check all information carefully, including spelling.
 - (a) The information for your Kukkiwon certificate will be taken directly from the British Taekwondo database
 - (b) Check that the details in your membership booklet ('licence') are correct. If they are not, please inform Membership Services immediately.
- (4) If any paperwork arrives after 5.00 pm on the closing date (30 days before the grading), the application will not be accepted under any circumstances.
- (5) You will not be informed directly that your application has been received and registered for the promotion test.
- (6) No video or photography equipment, parents or family will be allowed into the examination room.
 - (a) Only one Instructor of each candidate on the floor will be allowed into the examination room.
 - (b) Instructors who accompany candidates must abide by a dress code. Sportswear (e.g., track suit) is permitted but suit and tie are also acceptable. Shorts are not appropriate.
 - (c) 5th Dans and above do not have automatic access to the examination room. Any 6th Dan or above is allowed to observe all candidates. They must abide by a smart (suit and tie) dress code.
- (7) A Taekwondo Scotland badge must be worn on the front of the uniform on the left-hand side.
- (8) All candidates must wear the following protection for all sparring: Head guard, trunk protector, groin guard, forearm guards, shin guards, mouth guard and foot protectors.
 - (a) All equipment must be of approved brands. A list of acceptable brands is available on the BT website or from Bill Darlington (bill.darlington@britishtaekwondo.org).
 - (b) Forearm guards can be removed during self-defence.
- (9) All foreign nationals must submit a document of proof that they have lived in the UK for more than 6 months.
- (10) Medical problems & disabilities
 - (a) Short-term injuries and health issues
If a candidate suffers from a short-term injury or health issue, the Promotion Panel respectfully suggest that the candidate waits until the condition is no longer an issue to them and applies for promotion at a later test date. This will allow the panel to give a fair test and a fair result.
 - (b) Long-term health problems or life-time issues
In the case a candidate suffers from a long-term injury or a life-time health issue (physical or mental) then the candidate must submit:
 - (i) a Doctor's letter or medical certificate confirming the medical issue and its effect on the candidate's ability to be tested in a Taekwondo promotion test and
 - (ii) a note from their Instructor/Coach explaining the issue in layman's terms and how they overcome these issues in training.
 The Promotional Panel will then take these stated issues into consideration in order to provide a fair test and a fair result.
 - (c) Wearing of spectacles during promotion testing
If a candidate must wear spectacles and cannot manage without them during all parts of the Promotion Test, then they must wear approved and prescribed safety spectacles to protect both themselves and their partners in sparring and self-defence.
- (11) If you withdraw from the grading you must notify us. If no notification is given, a £30 administration fee will be charged.
- (12) If any cheques are not honoured (i.e., 'bounce'), a £20 administration fee will be charged for each cheque.
- (13) Applications will only be accepted through Secretary-General, Taekwondo Scotland, 23 Ashlar Avenue, Cumbernauld, G68 0GL. No applications will be accepted by hand.

NOTES

The closing date is 5.00 pm at the latest, 30 days before the grading.

- (1) If any paperwork arrives after 5.00 pm on the closing date (30 days before the grading), the application will not be accepted under any circumstances.
- (2) Please aim to get your forms in well in advance of the closing date.
- (3) It is recommended that all applications are in 34 days before the grading.
- (4) If forms have been incorrectly filled in, or lost in the post, this will allow good time to rectify the mistakes before the closing date avoiding the £30 administration fee.
- (5) If a mistake has been made on the form, we will not accept the rectification after the closing date without the £30 administration fee.
- (6) The application forms are constantly being updated. Please use these forms provided; they are the most up to date.
- (7) The names of the applicants will be shown on the Taekwondo Scotland website as soon as they are registered. Please continually check that your details are on there before you make any other arrangements. If the details are not shown on the website this means we have not received your application and we need to be notified immediately. If your name is not on the list at the end of the closing date you will not be grading.
